Instructional Technology Training Tip:

Introducing the eBeam

The eBeam is an interesting bit of technology that allows you to digitally capture what is written on a dry erase board in real time. This is helpful for professors who would like to capture their lectures but prefer to use a whiteboard.

The eBeam hardware does have a price tag of around $700 per device.

Find out more about the eBeam from this demo from Dr. John Meyer’s Educational Technology class.

http://goo.gl/KdAsQc

For more information visit the webpage http://www.e-beam.com/education/ebeam-capture.html or contact John Meyer at jmeyer@fit.edu.