Instructional Technology Training Tip:

JMP Basics for Professors and Students

JMP is statistical analysis software. FIT currently has a site license for this excellent software.

JMP Basics for Professors and Students is an introduction to JMP. It covers basic topics and resources available for learning and teaching with JMP. These resources are for professors and students!

Follow this link to register for one of their many upcoming webcasts. Space is limited:

http://www.jmp.com/about/events/webcasts/academic_webcast.shtml